“ Judy was love, light, comfort and hope in human form. She was so sweet and treated me like I was her own granddaughter every time I saw her. We always had the most fun with Judy and Tom at the lighthouse, whether we were grilling out, sitting by the fire or relaxing in the garage listening to music. Judy's memory will live on forever in those who love and cherish her, and I will always be grateful for the time I got to spend with her. Sending the entire family so much love.

“ Judy and Tom's house was always a fun place to visit either just to catch up or especially when there was a party or a wedding. I never seen her get angry or have negative things to say about anyone. She was one of a kind. Sally and I will miss her.

“ Judy and Tom were always willing to help, whatever the need. At “Inn the Garden” they catered many events from casual parties, to Arts Council fund raisers, to wedding banquets. On one occasion Susan spent a night at a Port Huron hospital and Judy responded to my call and took care of our guests with breakfast and her warm smile. She brought a band to the Carriage House and celebrated my birthday. With Tom she joined Sue and I lighting candles throughout the business district for Christmas walk. I will never forget her smile and ability to contribute and help. John Lombardi, (Builder of Inn the Garden and restorer of the Carriage House, Lexington).

“ My deepest sympathy to Tom on the loss of his beloved wife and to their children and family.

I had the privilege to meet them a few weeks ago when I went to their home to bring Communion to Judy. I was touched and inspired by her amazing faith in the Eucharist. Up to my very last visit she was aware of the presence of the Lord and followed the prayers. What a gift.

May the Angels welcome her in paradise, may she rest in peace.

My prayers for the family to find comfort at this painful time.
