

Karen J. Raysin

August 23, 1958 - May 16, 2025

Karen Jean Raysin, age 66, of Sandusky, formerly Gustavus, AK, passed away Friday, May 16, 2025 at her home.

She was born August 23, 1958 in Deckerville, daughter of the late William W. and Nancy D. (Trigger) Bombard. Karen married Brian Raysin on January 5, 1998 in Juneau, Alaska.

Karen worked Patient Access Services at Bartlett Regional Hospital in Alaska. Her role as E.R. registration was done with efficiency, knowledge, and expertise. With all the multi tasking from answering phones, emergency alarms, patient and doctor questions, and assisting co-workers, her calm demeanor was invaluable. Karen enjoyed gardening, traveling, whale watching, reading cook books and cooking, her owl decorations, and watching the moose in the flower gardens, and bears in the berry patch. She always had a positive mindset, was very upbeat, kind, and had a loving and caring heart, she will be missed.

She is survived by her husband, Brian; son, John R. Vaughan, Jr.; brother, Roger (Julie) Bombard; sisters, Bonnie (Rick) DeLong, and Brenda (Al) Clor; sisters-in-law, Carol (Micky) VanEtten, and Judy Raysin; and several nieces and nephews.

Karen was preceded in death by her brothers, David and Daniel, sisters, Joyce Quarters and Susan Bombard, and brother-in-law, Robert Raysin. Inurnment will take place at Downing Cemetery in Deckerville in the future.
