“ To Kathy's family, There are no words to mend your heartache. It will be the little things that you will remember, the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter. It may seem difficult right now, but it will be the memories of all those little things that will help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again one day. I can remember the days of walking to school with Kathy in elementary school and up thru high school...just like they were yesterday. Growing up, we were at each other's houses a lot. She is gone now, but she will never be forgotten.
