“ I didn't know Laura and only recently learned Joshua is my cousin...it's very difficult to say goodbye the final time to our parents. I lost mine 20 years ago and I still pick up the phone to call them to share something I saw, or laughed at. I pray Josh and his family are able to Celebrate Laura's life in the Lord's light and that they find solace in memory's of Laura and not sadness. As days and years pass there will always be some forgotten memory that will pop up outta nowhere and I believe those memory's are sent to us to show the person that has past is still with us in Spirit. RIP and knowing you are loved Laura. You raised a good son.

“ From the first day we met each other, we were not only mutual mothers-in-law, we ere friends. Many of our interests were the same; our children and grand children first of all. We loved each other's kids. We shared interest in gardens, flowers,herbs, quilting, sewing, good books, movies, cooking, a love of the sea and lighthouses! One thing I admired greatly about Laura, although she didn't have much of this worlds goods, she always shared whatever she had with others. I shall always miss her great cooking, our lively conversations, her peanut brittle at Christmas (which Bill hid in his dresser drawer!), and her kind friendship as part of my life! I loved her dearly. I pray Gods gracious comfort for all of us who knew and loved her.
