

Laura L. Vitale

February 11, 1948 - February 6, 2026

Laura (DeBone) Vitale went to her eternal rest four days short of her 78th birthday after a long battle with illness on Friday, February 6, 2026.

Born in Detroit February 11, 1948, she worked in healthcare as a clerk and EKG technician for many years. She was a stay-at-home mother for her children before she resumed work in retail. She was a master craft lady, creating gifts that delighted friends and family.

She is survived by her husband, John, of 53+ years, three daughters, Gianna (Scott) Breloski, Donna Vitale (Patrick Harris), and Carla (Dan) Serfas, three granddaughters, Olivia Breloski, Francesca Vitale-Harris, and Gianina Vitale-Harris.

Laura was preceded in death by her beloved Granny and Pop D'Amico, mother Lorraine Cabrera, father John DeBone, and siblings, Robert, John, and Elizabeth.

Burial of her cremains and a memorial will take place in the spring.

“ My deepest sympathy and love to John and family. The memories I have of my 77 years of friendship with my stroller buddy Laura, will remain in my heart forever and always. May the angels welcome her to paradise. 🙏💜🙏
Love, Karen

“ Wonderful memories of my lovely SIL and Aunt to our children . Her niece and God daughter Charlotte called her “ Aunt Purple”. Laura did love that color... even proudly drove a snazzy purple car as a young , working adult. She was abundantly talented and made me a lovely pineapple themed , crocheted vest that Granny D’ Amico would have smiled at. Her dear departed older brother proudly gave her away as a beautiful bride to hubby John. Tony, Pat , Chris always happy to see Aunt Laura . May God hold her in the palm of His hand. Hugs to John , the 3 beautiful daughters and families....Aloha. Aunt Judie
