“ Linda was a strong and kind woman, who was lovingly devoted to her family and friends. She would make herself available to support you by extending a helping hand or offering words of encouragement. During my teenage years, Linda was always there, inviting me into her home and heart, and basically allowing me to hang with her. We had a lot of fun together. Those are good memories of Linda that I will keep with me. Linda, you will be missed by all who knew you.

“ When I think about Linda, I think of how big her heart was. I remember camping trips we took many years ago. Playing cards, enjoying her company. She was our Angela's Godmother and Angie loved her dearly. All around my house I have memories of Linda, from her crafting days. Every time we visited them she wanted to give me something she thought I might like. She was always thinking of the other person. She will be missed.
