

Lorie J. Kalso

June 8, 1963 - August 11, 2015

CROSWELL: Lorie Jean (McKenney) Kalso, age 52, went to be with her Lord and Savior Tuesday, August 11, 2015 at home with family members close by. Lorie was born June 8, 1963 in Deckerville, daughter of James and Donna (Cameron) McKenney. She attended Croswell-Lexington Schools and grew up on the family farm. She married the love of her life, Keith Kalso, at the young age of nineteen. They made their home near Croswell, not very far from the farm. Lorie's heart was committed to raise a Godly family; she chose to be home and was committed to this noble task. While raising the family she held the office of Deputy Treasurer for Buel Township for 24 years. She was devoted to raising three daughters and cultivating friendships with many people. Lorie was very active at the Croswell Wesleyan Church where she utilized her musical talents by playing alto and tenor saxophone in the church worship band. Keith and Lorie enjoyed all sorts of travel especially vacations with the girls. The family traveled to many states and saw much of our country together.

Lorie is survived by her husband Keith; parents James and Donna McKenney of Yale; her daughters Emily (Paul) Clark of Midland; Alyssa (Justin) Hanje of Freeland; and Amanda (Nathan) Ewald of Saginaw; sister Lesa (Rodney) Bricker of Lexington; and four nieces two nephews.

The family will honor the memory of Lorie and invite you to visit and share memories Thursday, August 13th from 4 to 9:00 p.m. and Friday, August 14th from 1 to 9 p.m. at Pomeroy Funeral Home, Croswell, and Saturday, August 15th from 10 to 11 a.m. at the Crowell Wesleyan Church. A service celebrating Lorie's life will be held at 11:00 a.m. at the Crowell Wesleyan Church.

Memorials may be made to Hephzibah Children's Home, Macon, Georgia.

Tribute Wall

SM

“ Jim and Donna, No words can express my sincere sympathy! I'm so sorry!

Sally McIntyre - August 17, 2015 at 08:32 AM

LH

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I met Lorie years ago when she married Keith and they introduced me to "Shaklee". I haven't seen her since her girls were little and I moved farther across the state and our lives got busy raising kids. I cherish those memories of her from long ago. I know that everyone that knew her have their own memories to cherish. May the Hope of seeing her again when Jesus Christ comes back comfort those that loved her on this earth.

Lorraine Degraeve Haynes - August 15, 2015 at 10:19 AM

RW

“ Lori has been such a dear friend since Cros-Lex days (Ron). This wonderful woman of faith not only lived her life for the Lord, but showed His love through her in so many ways! She will be greatly missed, but never forgotten. To know Lori is to know her smile, laugh and LOVE for others.

Ron and Teri Walker - August 14, 2015 at 03:53 PM

SL

“ What a treasured vessel of The Lord and she is ministering before The Lord in such essence overflowing joy His love sweeping through her in bellows we rejoice with her and stand in awe of His abiding. Much love Stan n Joan

stan n Joan Liniarski - August 14, 2015 at 01:34 PM

WK

“ We are so, so sorry to hear of Lorie's passing We met Lorie when she was about to enter Middle School. It was our pleasure to see her grow into a lovely young woman, wife, and mother. Bless you all as you translation to life without her. Hold her memory close and love each other a bit more.

William and Susan Kubitskey - August 13, 2015 at 04:22 PM

SK

“ I was so sad to hear of Lori's passing and words can not comfort in times like this but I pray and know God is faithful to comfort us thru Jesus and his Holy Spirit. My God comfort you in this time. It can only be a comfort knowing that our saved loved ones are waiting for us in Heaven. Im so sorry for your loss. Sincerely Susan and Gary Kuechenmeister

Susan Lawrence Kuechenmeister - August 13, 2015 at 01:55 PM

JF

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you as Lorie makes her journey home. May you be assured of God's arms around you as you mourn your loss but celebrate her life.

Joe and Sheryl Forth - August 13, 2015 at 11:44 AM

RC

“ Ramon and Fabiola Cardona has sent this Expressions of Sympathy card.

Ramon and Fabiola Cardona - August 12, 2015 at 10:12 PM

JT

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. May God comfort and bless you all at this very difficult time. One image I have of her is Donna holding her in her arms, beaming from ear to ear, along with Jim's proud smile-- she had just been born and I believe it was one of the first times she had attended church.

John Thompson - August 12, 2015 at 09:04 PM

DM

“ I love you all. No words can express my sincere sympathy. We lost an incredibly beautiful person but heaven has gained a true angel.

Dr. Michelle Muele - August 12, 2015 at 08:48 PM

TB

“ To the family of Lorie Kalso: The world will be a little less bright without Lorie's smile and kind heart. The heavens, however, will shine even more bright. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.
With Deepest Sympathy,
Russ and Tena (Gentner) Bell (Cros-Lex, class of '81)

Tena Bell - August 12, 2015 at 07:49 PM

SW

“ Heaven has certainly gained an angel. May God wrap his loving arms around Lorie's family during this difficult time. RIP my friend.

Suzette Wagner - August 12, 2015 at 02:11 PM