“ My deepest sympathy to the McLeod family. I have great memories of Madalene whom I met through the Homebound Ministry. Every week I would spend time with her in prayer and enjoying her conversations. She had a wonderful sense of humor and so much faith in the Lord. Going through all her illnesses she always had a beautiful smile and happy outlook of life. She loved flowers and I enjoyed looking at her garden while I waited for her to open the door. Whenever I think of her I get a smile and happy thoughts.. May the angels welcome you in paradise Madalene, may you rest in peace.

*Love,
