“ I am so lucky to have known Marie as a friend. How can I ever thank Marie for what she meant to me. Her smile and her laugh brought sunshine to every day spent playing tennis with me as her tennis partner in Albuquerque, New Mexico. May God and his Angels watch over her.

“ I was fortunate enough to meet and know Marie as her tennis coach and friend in the 2007-11-time frame. She and her teammates, known as the OPALS, Older People with Active Lifestyles played tennis with vigor and enjoyment. Marie was a loyal friend who supported all our socials and events. She brought a larger-than-life persona. We had talked briefly about her time as a Ford secretary to the famous Lee Iacoco. She was humble, funny and loyal. She really lived through so many changes as a businesswoman and yet she never complained about how things were, just rolled with the punches and broke through that glass ceiling. It was a privilege knowing her and her memories will put a smile on my face. Rest in peace and love.
