

Mary Harle Hoppenworth

January 2, 1922 - October 28, 2012

PORT HURON- Mary Harle Hoppenworth, age 90, formerly of Croswell, died Sunday, October 28, 2012 at Marwood Manor in Port Huron. Harle was born January 2, 1922 in Croswell to the late William and Mary Harle (Kenslake) Arnot. She and Eugene Hoppenworth married on December 13, 1952 in Port Huron. He preceded her in death September 14, 2006.

Harle was a Nurse in the Army during WWII. She was a member of the Croswell Presbyterian Church and the Port Huron Presbyterian Church, the Marysville American Legion & V.F.W. Harle was the first ever anesthesiologist at Port Huron Hospital.

She is survived by her sons Rex of Port Huron, and Bruce of Marsville; 3 grandchildren Kyle, Rachel, and Adrian.

Harle is preceded in death by her husband Eugene, brother Dean Arnot. A private family memorial will take place at a later date.