“ *Mr. Zerillo & Family, my sympathy & prayers go out to you & your loved ones. I never had a chance to meet Jean, but through my nephew Tony I knew she was a wonderful soul. Tony is heart broken with Jean's passing. I'm thankful for the love & care you have shown Tony over the years, he is a very special young man. My mother & I always heard from Tony how great the Zerillo's are. So rest in peace Jean & know Tony will be there for Domenick. You will be missed but remembered with love & respect. “ My fondest memories of Mary Jean are of her greeting everyone who entered her shop, "Gatherings", with her big welcoming smile and her admonition: "If you need any help just let me know!" She made everyone feel so special. As a fellow antiques dealer I have been blessed to call her "friend" .

A consummate quilter and seamstress her creations will be missed. I simply cannot imagine a visit to Lexington without Mary Jean behind her counter or in her beautiful gardens. Such a creative lady with a big heart and soul. Rest in Peace dear friend.
