I remember Max riding down in front of our house on his tractor with his dog , and our dog Spot used to go crazy about that. They of course thought that was funny! My dad and Max were friends and neighbors for a long time. Phyllis, so sorry for your loss!

“ My condolences to friends and family regarding the death of Max Lamb. While I didn't know him personally, my father John D. Radford did and admired the entire family. Special sympathy to Max's daughter Teri (Lamb) Burch, who was my hairdresser when I first relocated back to Michigan from New Mexico (to be closer to my father in his elderly years).
