“ I always knew Mike as "Buff", since that was the way he was introduced to me in the late 60s by the "gang" of Memphis/Richmond guys I knew. He was always funny as hell, creative, had a way with words, and loved music. He introduced me to Jeff Fryer, Mark Barnes and Bill Hagen, who formed the core of the band we started, "Streetnoise". Buff also was one of 2 guys who joined me in August of 1969 to drive to a little town in New York, to attend a small festival known as Woodstock!! We lost track of each other until about 3 years ago, when he magically showed up at "Deckers" in Algonac for a musical fundraiser we held for Harry Boulter, the amazing guitar player and long-time friend. We swapped a lot of stories, had a few beers, and watched/listened to a lot of great music. I am glad to have been able to see him after such a long time. The news of his passing came as a big shock to me. I will always remember Buff as a caring, funny, positive soul. I know he will be missed, and my prayers go out to his family. "Rock it in heaven, my friend!"
