“ My deepest sympathy to Mary Ann and Her daughter Erin at this time of sorrow.

I had the privilege to bring Communion to Michael for some time and his friendliness, devotion and love for the Catholic Faith made me enjoy very much visiting him and spending time in prayer with him. He had a gentle soul and a love for people. When he wasn't able to attend daily Mass because of his illness, he missed seeing the people and he wanted to keep informed about what was going on in the Parish. His family was very important to him and he was very proud of his niece Erin.

I will miss visiting him but he'll always be in my prayers.

Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. Amen
