“ O my goodness! My deepest condolences to Irene and her family. I just can't believe that Michael is gone. He was one of my favorite guys in Ave Maria Parish. I have the best memories working with him counting money when I lived in Lexington. He would always make us laugh because he was such a perfectionist and everything had to be so.

He had such a positive influence in me. I ought to him getting involved in being a Lector.

He had such generous heart, always doing good for others along with Irene. What an inspiration and moral support they were to me. May the Lord comfort Irene and her family at this very sorrowful time.

May the angels welcome you in paradise my dear friend Michael, may you rest in peace. Until we meet again.
