“ Dear Joan, Kathy, Gary and Millie's wonderfully big and beautiful family! Please accept Terry and my deepest sympathies on the passing of a truly beautiful and generous lady, Millie, our good friend and neighbor of many, many years in Lex-Heights in the days of wonderful neighbors and true friends. My Mom, Louise Konkel, and Millie shared many wonderful days together and I will forever remember their laughter and story telling, sharing a cold can of beer! I remember Jack and Millie spending their Summer vacations at the beach with their family, and in later years Millie would share how proud she was of each and every one of her family with photos and stories. She was a remarkable lady and will be missed ... but we will also remember her as a Christian lady of Faith. I can see her and Mom in Heaven right now, on their favorite swing. God Bless you all!
