

Mildred E. Studaker

January 11, 1928 - March 3, 2016

Croswell- Mildred E. Studaker, age 88, a resident of Croswell passed away on Thursday March 3, 2016 at the New Life AFC Home in Lexington.

She was born on January 11, 1928 in Buel Township a daughter of the late Ai and Myrtle (Hunt) Parker. Mildred married Irvin W. Studaker on July 3, 1948 in Croswell. He preceded her in death on November 30, 2014.

Millie retired from Cros-Lex Schools as a cook.

She is survived by her four daughters Rhonda (David) Yake, Debra (David) Quillen both of Landenberg, Pa., Kristy (Scott) Hohensee of New Baltimore and Carol (Jeffrey) Dicus of Croswell; five grandchildren Allison (Derek) Triplett, Erin Yake, Kelsey Quillen, Scott and Kylee Hohensee, a great granddaughter Caroline Triplett; a sister Jean (Elmer) Sly of Croswell; many nieces and nephews.

Millie was preceded in death by two sisters and brother in laws June and LaVerne McNabb and Francis and John Schlaufman.

A Celebration of Millie's life will be held at 2 P.M. Saturday March 26, 2016 at the Croswell American Legion.

Memorials may be made to the New Life AFC, envelopes available at the Legion.

Millie's family would like to extend a grateful thank you to Debbie Gutch and the staff at New Life AFC and the staff at Heartland Hospice.

Tribute Wall

DC

“ I worked with Irv at Mueller Brass in the 60's and got to know Millie through our camping experiences when all our kids were very young. Happy that I was able to see them at the Studaker Reunion a few years back while we were home on vacation. They were two of the most gracious people I have ever known. Sincere Condolences to all of the family. Dave Crocker Clinton, Md

---

David C Crocker - March 06, 2016 at 08:41 AM

LK

“ I used to live on Gaige st Sorry to lose her

---

Laura Fenton Koehldorfer - March 05, 2016 at 12:07 PM

FW

“ so sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with your family.

---

FRANCES WADE - March 04, 2016 at 01:21 PM