“ We have so many precious memories of you Minnie! David and I always felt so much love from you and Russ whenever we were together. We loved how you were always so sensitive to the Holy Spirit as you spoke into our lives. David remembers you stepping on his toes to keep him in place so you could look him in the eye to admonish him with the words and love of Jesus. You always showed us love and caring interest in our family even as we moved all the way to Texas. Every time we can home to Michigan we looked forward to coming over for a long visit. We loved running into you in the store and stopping to catch up. Thank you for all the love and prayers you invested into our lives, Minnie. Great is your reward and we can only imagine what it is like for you to have this reunion with Russ, and your Lord Jesus Christ. We won't say goodbye Minnie, but say we will see you soon. All our love to the family.
