“ Dear John, Diane, Darlene & Dan,
Thank you for letting us know about Myra's passing. We're so sorry. When I spoke with Myra last year I got the feeling that she was preparing all of you for this day.
Myra was a loving, caring & prayerful wife, mother & friend. I would like to share a message with you that I received when I lost my brother earlier this month.
Perhaps they are not really stars in the sky....perhaps they're openings in the heavens where our loved ones shine down to let us know they are happy.
May your memories be a source of comfort for you.
Take care & God bless all of you.
Your old neighbors & friends,
Arnie & Sally Warnock

Her earthly journey may have ended but another journey is beginning for her you will see her again one day and know that she is looking down on each one of you with love in her eyes.6
