

Nancy Carol Swantek

November 11, 1938 - July 13, 2011

Port Sanilac- Nancy C. Swantek, age 72, a resident of Port Sanilac, passed away peacefully at the Marwood Manor in Port Huron on Wednesday July 13, 2011, after a long and courageous battle with cancer.

She was born on November 11, 1938 in Detroit a daughter of Samuel G. and Bernice T. (Dustin) Niver. Nancy married Gerald L. Swantek on May 23, 1964 in Mt. Clemens.

Nancy worked as an x-ray technician for many years. While living in the Detroit area she was very active in Girl Scouting and served as a former Brownie and Cadette Leader. Nancy was also a volunteer at the Bark Shanty Community Center in Port Sanilac with her husband Gerald for many years. She also attended the Port Sanilac United Methodist Church.

Nancy is survived by her beloved husband Gerald L. Swantek of Port Sanilac, her mother Bernice T. Niver of Mt. Clemens. A brother Larry R. Niver of St. Clair Shores. Many brother-in laws and sister-in laws, many special nieces and nephews, many dear cousins and friends. She was preceded in death by her father Samuel G. Niver and a sister-in law Frances Niver.

A memorial service will be held at the Port Sanilac United Methodist Church at a later date. Rev. Eric Johnson will officiate. Inurnment has taken place in the Resurrection Cemetery in Clinton Township.

Memorials in memory of Nancy are suggested to the American Cancer Society or Port Sanilac United Methodist Church.

Arrangements were by the Pomeroy Funeral Home in Lexington.