“ I worked with Nicole at children’s protective services. She was the kindest, sweetest person. Despite the horrible things we saw there, she never lost hope, and continued to help and save abused children for as long as she was able. The world will be a darker place without her. I made a donation to the Sanilac animal shelter in her name.

“ Wanted to reach out & offer my sympathies for your loss of Nicole. Losing a loved one is hard even if they're elderly but to lose someone younger is so very sad. Life can be so uncertain. One thing that may bring a small measure of comfort is that when Jesus friend Lazurus died, Jesus cried. John 11:35, which is amazing because he knows the condition of the dead that they are in deep sleep like state , - John 11:11, knowing our loved ones are not suffering brings some peace & comfort. They sleep waiting to be called out just as Lazurus was. My hope is that this soothes your aching heart at least a little.

“Nicole was the adorable little flower girl at our wedding and she went on to become the beautiful bride at her own. We are blessed that she is part of our family and that we had the chance to share so many wonderful times together with her. These memories will live on in our hearts forever.
