“ Mom loved all her family and friends. She was the glue that truly kept the family together. Her love was enduring and not ending. I know she truly appreciated everything her daughter Lisa and son-in-law Karl, sacrificed to take care of her. Lisa was a ROCK that we grew to depend on. Thank you Lisa and your extended family for taking care of her. Miss you, Mom.

Yes, help her to the grave. Wow, look at you trying to rewrite history. Pathetic attempt at best Theresa. We ALL know the truth and saw it for ourselves. You should be ashamed of yourself.

It's so sad but all we can do is pray and hope that the TRUTH will come to light. Those who know, know.

Brenda Muse - March 11, 2025 at 12:04 PM

Yes the truth must come out and heal the family the way Mom would have wanted it to be. But Jennifer it is a crime to put your comment up and it isn't an attempt to rewrite history as you say. I stand by what I wrote and know deep in my soul that Mom appreciated Lisa and her family. Plus all her other family members and friends. I am not ashamed of speaking the truth and my mind.

“ Mama Nina has always been like a second mother to me since I was 5 years old. She never made me feel anything less than one of her own. I will always have fond memories of her singing, giving loving direction, looking out for me, covering for us to get extra “4 square” play, and when I was older calling me for advice on different matters. There was never a time that she didn’t have a smile when I saw her or expressed how happy she was to spend time with me. I truly cherished her, especially in the last year to spend time with her when I could. I know that she is now pain free and in glory with our Savior and so many others that have gone before her and I now count her as one of those people that I cannot wait to see again soon. Until then, I will always cherish the memories. I’m beyond thankful to Daniel, Brenda, and David for being there and caring for her. Most of all, for the comfort she had this last year ❤️

“ The Muse family has always been a part of my life since I was a little girl. Grandma Nina knew that I liked to paint and draw so she gifted me her entire paintbrush and colored pencil collection so I could use it to draw pictures for her and other people. She will be dearly missed.💔

She loved you so much sis. Momma and daddy both have been so grateful for your intercessory prayers to the point they would ask me, "Is Sherry praying with you about...?" Whatever the situation may have been. Momma loved watching you go live on the LITS ministry page and rejoiced with us for every prayer that was answered and every Holy Spirit confirmation. You brought joy to momma and she totally adopted you. Thank you for your love and kindness to her sis.💜🙏

“ Nina, my beautiful, lovely ole time friend made it to see Grandma Jenkins before I get there!! lol!! What I can say about Nina's heart is she was always there for her kids no matter what. She had something good to say about each one of them. I tell you what no matter what each child went through they would know how there Mom would feel and she loved unconditionally anyways. Don & I were there to witness many times. Even when God took Jimmy's love letter back to himself that day, nobody cried the harder along with Nina and Larry. We could never forget Nina and Larry being there along side Don & I so many times instructing, encouraging, helping out as we had each one of your kids when we were Awana Directors, CBC Teen Directors and in Bible School too. What a Joy to think back on all the precious memories!! When we needed Chili made for the Destination Unknown for the teens you were one of the ladies helping make Chili in the old kitchen at CBC! We are more than antiques Nina!! Oh we had good times at Camp Co Be Ac together and we don't have to repeat how we acted!! Lol!! We had good old fashioned fun!! Yea!! Nina, I will hold you in my heart until I get to see you again more sooner than later. Please give my Don Parker a big hug and a kiss on the cheek for me. Larry, I have tears typing this, but until than with joy we will carry on until that day God takes us home!! What day that will be when my Savior I shall see and the dear loved one!! It will be glory!! Love, hugs and prayers to Larry and the whole family.
