“ I was just in Lexington this week and drove by the church. I always have wondered how Pastor Weiss was doing. He was such a devoted follower of Christ. His legacy is the countless number of lives that he impacted for the Kingdom of God. For me, he was the first role model that I saw as a father when I was a kid. I was friends with his son Alex and spent a lot of time with the family. He was a hard working man, built an incredible business, and always kept a great sense of humor. He ran a bible study at his house for many of the kids from the Heights. He taught us the Word and laid a foundation for a lifetime of faith. I can still remember gathering around the table in their dining room to hear the Word, memorize scripture, and build our faith. He led so many of us to the Lord. It breaks my heart to learn that he has passed but I know he is in Heaven laughing, worshiping and receiving his reward for a life devoted to serving Christ. I can only imagine the joy on his face when he heard, "Well done thou good and faithful servant.....Enter into the joy of the Lord"!!! Paula and I send our condolences to Mary, Alex, Yvonne, and all of the Weiss family. One day, you will see him again. God Bless you Pastor Weiss.
