“ I learned recently of Paul's passing and want to share my memories of him.

It's been many years since I talked with Paul but I will never forget my good friend. Paul was a kind person with a good heart. I worked with him as a young man in my 20's and we would hang out after work. Paul would help anybody that needed it. My regret is that I never was able to talk to him before he died. I miss you old buddy rest in peace friend.
