Paul truly lived life to the fullest and loved going to the horse shows to watch his daughter and granddaughter show their horses. He was famous for the "Thumbs Up" after every class they entered. His smile and laughter were contagious when they won. The love of motorcycles, hunting, bowling, and fast cars gave him the diverse life that he loved.

We will be gathering to share our favorite memories of this wonderful man. Please wear something red, his favorite color, as we celebrate his wonderful life.

The song is ended, but the melody lingers on. He always told his family about the song by Elvis that he loved "I did it my way".....He sure did and they thank God every day.
