

Paul E. Marsack

March 16, 1962 - March 22, 2019

Paul Eugene Marsack, age 57, of Lexington died March 22, 2019 at McLaren Port Huron Hospital in Port Huron.

He was born March 16, 1962 in Detroit.

Paul was a decorative painter and worked on bringing back to life many historical venues all over the country...churches, theaters, state capitols, etc. including the Fox Theater and the Opera House in Detroit, and the State Capitol in Lansing. He valued his family and friends and always stayed in touch with them, and loved his son above all others, and was so thankful to have him.

He is survived by his son, Ethan Marsack, his mother Jane McLachlan, and his sister Julie Bach.

A Memorial Service will be held 11 AM Saturday, March 30 at St. Denis Catholic Church, Lexington. Fr. Donald J. Eppenbrock will officiate.

Memorials may be made to the Salvation Army.

“ To the family of Paul Marsack,

We lived across the street from each other in G.P. Had many fun times and laughs.

Walked and drove to G.P.South H.S. many days with each other.

Paul was such a nice guy to everyone! He had a great personality and was very genuine.

My sincere sympathy to his family and his son. May he rest in God's peace.

“ Paul was a great friend to me when I lived in GP.

We had many fun times and adventures in H.S.

I remember skipping school and going to the Tigers opening day with Paul. The Tiger's lost and it was cold and rainy but we still had fun.

Hanging out and listening to the Yes albums.

Admiring Paul's album cover art work projects and swimming in the lake!

With his Converse hightops Paul was faster than most when we played hoops or chased a Frisbee. Paul's laugh was contagious and although he was a street wise tough kid, those who got to know him knew his heart was enormous.

My condolences to the family.
