“ We were truly blessed the day we bought our place next to Phil and Becky. They were absolutely the best neighbors anyone could have ever ask for. Phil shared so many stories with us, that several times, I wasn't sure if they were true or if he was just an excellent story teller. We were blessed to have shared many meals, drinks, and constant laughter. Phil became as close to us as if we really were related. I can't imagine going back to Michigan and not having him next door. He was so loved. Thanks for all the wonderful love and memories. It is hard to put into words.
Take care Guy, Stephanie, and Andrea. Stay strong. Much Love to you.

“ My sincere condolences to the entire Halsey family. Phil has been a friend of the family "forever". He and my stepfather Jerry Boik were best buds. Partners in crimes. Working together at Hudson and doing side jobs together to support their families. The stories they would tell were both hilarious and unbelievable. The one I remember the most was the year the Detroit Tigers won the World Series in 1968. I also worked at Hudson downtown and stayed down there to party after work. I ran into Phil and Jerry (my stepfather) at the bar across the street. They were having a " few beers". I walked in to buy some beer to take outside - I got caught!!! What a night. The love that spread throughout the city that night was exactly the type of love that Phil spread to everyone who knew him. He had a heart of gold and would give you the shirt off his back. Both he and Jerry were the same that way - probably why they loved each other so much.

Phil will be missed by all that knew him. He was a good man, husband, father and grandfather. RIP Phil - You are now with your Becky, your brother Pete and your parents.

Love you - Christine Cassisi
