“ Dad (Jack Weible) and I send our heartfelt sympathies to you all on the loss of your mother and grandmother. Ramona was a great lady. I remember visits to Croswell that we always looked forward to. Ramona was always kind, liked to laugh, and was a good cook! We were so glad to hear that she was able to stay in her own home right to the end with family surrounding her. There's no greater tribute to a life than knowing you were that respected and loved.
