“ I cannot yet look at a tomato without crying. Ray was my father-in-law and one of the most brilliant minds I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. I will miss his lovely garden, his clever humor, and his political ranting and raving. I will miss his slippers scuffing across the floor, and his bright expression as we would pull in his driveway from the long trip up. Rest well, Grandpa Ray, and know that you are so loved.

“ Our deepest sympathy to Ray's family. You are in our thoughts and prayers. I will always remember the great vegetable garden he had. Every year he would bring tomato and pepper plants over for my mom to grow. He will be missed. Doug and Marlene

“ I haven't seen Ray since I retired from US Customs in 1999. I had worked with him often and remember him well. Very friendly, very knowledgeable,a great guy to be around. My condolences and my prayers to the family.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Ray's family during this difficult time. I remember the Euchre games at the cottages of Ray, Harry, Jimmy, and Jack that went long into the night! I also remember Ray was an avid fisherman and one of the most successful in the neighborhood. Will miss his email jokes and daily dog walking. Tom and Irene
