“ I will remember Richard as a kind brother as he would be there for me when he was in good health. We weren't just brother and sister we were friends and neighbors for years and we were lucky to spend many days together in their pool as he taught my kids to swim they still remember that. Now he is with his son Rick, our dad Alex, My son George and my husband George Ivkov. Someday we will all be together again in Heaven with our Lord Jesus Christ that is what gets us through this tough time now. Carol
