“ My Papa was the most amazing man, and best grandpa there ever could be. I will forever miss hearing his chuckle when he would laugh.. He was always the light of the room.. people just gravitated to him. He has been such a hard worker his whole life. A man that will always be respected. I had such amazing memories with him.. I only wish I could of given him more hugs before he left.. and spent more time with him later in life. It hurts a lot losing him. :(I have many great memories with my papa though..When I was younger he used to love what he called "Playing rat" Which was when he would wake me up at like 3 AM, and we would sneak down to the kitchen and get into all the ice cream, sweets, and pies.. IT was so much fun.. Im just taking it hard because I loved my Papa so much..I just want to be able to hug him once more :(// and tell him how much I love him...
