BURTCHVILLE- Robert "Bud" James Sheldon, 70, of Burtchville, Michigan went home to be with our Lord and Savior on September 3, 2023 surrounded by his loving family and friends.

"Bud" was born in Yale, Michigan on November 14, 1952 to Robert H. and Patricia Sheldon. After 3 girls, his dad, who was so happy for a son, stated, "Now I have a little Buddy!" And it stuck!!

Bud attended and graduated from schools in Michigan. He spent his childhood playing with Tonka Construction toys, on the family farm. This led to a 45-year career in the heavy equipment industry in various states throughout the mid-west.

Bud was an avid sportsman who loved deer hunting and fishing. His ultimate catch was a 9-foot hammer head shark caught off the coast of Florida while enjoying a father / son deepsea fishing trip.

He is survived by his loving son, Jason M. (Amy) Sheldon, grandchildren, Deborah P. Sheldon, Trystan J. Waldhart, Robert I. Waldhart, his mother, Patricia Sheldon, siblings, Nancy, Diana, Beatrice (Larry) Collins, and Lou Ann. He is also survived by numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and of course, Moose the purrrfect lap companion!!!

He was preceded in death by his spouse, Deborah E. Salisbury, siblings, Sue Ann Sheldon, Pamela Sheldon and his father, Robert H. Sheldon.

Visitation will be from 2- 6 P.M. on Friday at the Pomeroy Funeral Home in Croswell.

Throughout his entire life, Bud gave selflessly to those in need, did not hesitate to help out others, and was a true family man. Bud may have had small feet, but he left huge foot prints on this earth, as well as many hearts.
