

Sally L. Grout

May 29, 1961 - December 19, 2011

PECK- Sally Grout was born to Eleanor & Robert Grout on May 29, 1961. She attended Cros-Lex Schools and graduated in the class of 1979. Her hobbies led her to painting and artwork. She loved rock & roll, good food, motorcycles, farm machinery, and all she called friends.

Sally lived in Arizona for 12 years making many lifelong friends. Her grandpa Munro would come visiting for a few winter months and they shared music and stories.

She returned to Michigan in 1991 and to family farming. Here she came to love the land, the challenges, the bookkeeping, but most of all her tractor. Great joy came to Sal as she influenced 2 nieces Ashley and Sara, and a nephew Jimmy.

Buel Church was helped along when Sal became involved with the youth. What a good experience they had together. Sally was Sunday School Superintendant. Also active in both Farm Bureau, and the farm programs of the FSA office serving on both boards. Her goal was to foster good relations with farmers and the city folks.

Many folks got to experience a ride with her in "HER" tractor or combine. Sally and Dave Brown formed a great friendship and a new family was added to Sally's life.

Surviving are her Fiancee David Brown and children Pertrila Brown and Aubre Cashman. Parents Bob and Eleanor (Munro) Grout of Crosswell. Sister Barbara Jo (Mike) Dennison of Delaware, Ohio. Brother Jeff (Debby) Grout of Croswell. Two nieces Ashley (Nathan) Campbell, Sara Grout, and nephew James Grout.

Funeral Services will be held 11 AM Thursday, December 22, 2011 at the Croswell U. Methodist Church. The Rev. Jerry Griggs will officiate.

Visiting will be held 2-9 PM Wednesday at the Pomeroy Funeral Home, Croswell, and 10-11 AM Thursday at the church.

We all sadly say goodbye with the knowledge that she believed and loved her Lord. Goodnight dear daughter.
