“ Sandy and Alex were neighbors to my two boys for many, many years. You couldn't ask for any better neighbors. I am so sorry for the loss of Alex and now Sandy. They both were great people. Sandy and Alex were like G-ma and G-pa to the boys children. They were loved by all of us and will never be forgotten. Prayers to the family at this most difficult time.

“ Oh mom.....the last time I heard your voice was Friday, March 5. I keep replaying the day over and over. A piece of my heart died the day you did. I know the faith you had and shared with me that you are at peace. However, losing your life line is so heartbreaking. You had a beautiful send off and so many shared their love for you to us. I had no doubt how lives you touched over the years. From near and far the stories continue. As you always told me——keep your circle Debbie they will help you in the saddest, hardest, and happiest times. You were right. They have and will continue to. We now have you and dad as our personal angels. We hope to continue to feel your love. You are missed so much. Like I told someone I liked my mom, my friends liked my mom. You were always a part of our lives. ❤️. Thank God for picking me to be yours. I wouldn't have wanted it any other way. You were the best grammie to these beautiful boys and girl. They loved you and have so many memories. This to will get them through.
