Sergeant First Class (U.S. Army, Retired) Jason J. Barr passed away at his home on May 21, 2026,. He was 48 years old.

Born to John Patrick Barr and Mary Beth Ellis on April 6, 1978, Jason grew up in Croswell, Michigan. He completed high school in 1996 and entered the United States Army as an Infantryman in 1998. After a distinguished career of more than 20 years, he retired in 2019 and ultimately moved to Fort Stewart, Georgia with his wife Misty and their family.

Jason was firm-but-fair leader who was fiercely loyal to and protective of his family, his friends and those in his care. This included cooking and looking after his youngest children and trying his best to make the family yard look like Misty's Hawaiian home. His service, in and out of uniform, was always selfless.

Jason's Army service included deployments to Kuwait, Bosnia and Herzegovina and three combat tours in Iraq. His awards and decorations include the Combat Infantryman Badge, Expert Infantryman Badge, Bronze Star Medal (3), Purple Heart (2), Meritorious Service Medal (3), Army Commendation Medal (6), National Defense Service Medal, Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Iraq Campaign Medal with Campaign Star, Non-Commissioned Officer Professional Development Ribbon (2), Army Service Ribbon, Overseas Service Ribbon (4), Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal and NATO Medal. His unit decorations include the Meritorious Unit Commendation, Presidential Unit Citation and Valorous Unit Award.
