“Ma...I can't believe you're gone...my heart aches, but I can't even begin to imagine the pain Teri, Kelly and Sammy and your grand children and great-grandchildren are going through:-(. But on the other hand my heart is filled with joy that you are reunited with Rhoni and you've waited for that for so long...

But those of us who are left behind grieve for you, both, we will miss your hearty infectious laugh, your sense of humor, your kindness, your generosity and the fact that you were always there for all of us whenever we needed you...and you never acted like you were spread too thin, and there were so many of us (your "children", those of us that called you 'Ma')...those of us whose hearts are broken cause we can't have one more hug, one more kiss, one more joke, one more drink, one more toke...one more minute with you...I'm gonna miss you Ma!!! I will never forget the last time I popped in to say 'hi'. I'm glad you were home and happy to visit with me...as always!! And I got to see the puppies. I glad you liked the frame I made you!! I love you Ma!!! And I miss you already and I look forward to seeing you on heaven's golden streets someday soon!! You aren't in this nasty cruel as world any more!! So Rest In Peace and watch over your loved ones. And Lordbring Sherry's Family and friends the peace they need to get over their grief, in Jesus' Name. Amen. I love you girls and I'm praying for you!!! I'm hoping to make it up there for the service!!

“ Well, I'm truly saddened and ashamed that I have to do this from behind prison walls and wasn't there for Sherry in her time of need, as she was ALWAYS there for me no matter what. I know a lot of people called her ma but for me never having a mother she IS my mother!!! She was the only woman I've ever called mom. I had the privilege of living right next door to her for many years, she was the main reason I loved living there. I have so many great memories of her. My warmest memory of her is when I was going through one of the worst times in my life, she would call every few hours to make sure I was okay, knowing I was alone and sad she would make me come over every day to watch Ellen or a movie And just about every meal she would always have a place set at table for me. A truly great person.. She will always be in my heart... For this is not the end, but a beginning for something much bigger !! You will always be in my heart.. Love ya Ma, Eric C.

“ Sherri would come to my house and we would perm each other's hair, talk, laugh, open our hearts out to one another. I always remember that she loved Cole slaw with gravy on it, lol I loved that lady with all my heart. Sherri was one of my very first friends I made when I moved here from Florida 34 years ago. RIP My dear friend
