“ Lew and family, We want to send among our deepest condolences on the passing of Sharon. As you know, we lost Lola in December. Mere words cannot assuage your grief, yet we take comfort in the knowledge that our loved ones live on in a place where there is no pain or sorrow. We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Heaven has welcomed home someone who was precious to so many. She gave "This little light of mine" true meaning. We did not know her for long but will cherish the time we did. She will be missed and remembered with love. Our prayers go out to Lew and the family as Sharon makes her journey home. May God's comfort and peace be with you all.

“ Sending our heartfelt thoughts and prayers to the Hurley family. Sharon was a wonderful person. I have such great childhood memories of the days at Croswell UMC with youth group, fun outings Sharon and Lew hosted at their home, and who could forget the roller rink! She was such a kind, gentle soul and a leading example of a Christian woman. May all of the great memories sustain you in the days ahead, knowing she touched so many lives. Sincerely, Suzanne (Soule) Kelly
