“ Where there was Steve, there was Ardie! Always together, always a match made in heaven. We met Steve in college and recently reconnected with them visiting in Texas and us visiting them in Michigan. We always loved reliving our college years and talking about grandkiddos and his upcoming adventure business in Florida. Steve was incredibly proud of his children and perfect grands. Steve was a shining star very talented and gifted, taken too soon but will no doubt be proudly watching over his beloved wife and precious family and of course, playing golf. Well Done Steve. Our Prayers will continue for this family to give them strength and comfort.

“ My Wonderful Cousin Steve was my “Protector & Secret Buddy” when we were children growing up, always looking out and taking care of me, as I was the only Girl in the group, and had 3 Boys conniving against me most of the time! He continued to be like that all through my Life, he was my “Giant Big Teddy Bear” had the biggest heart and always a sleeve to cry on, and most certainly listened with great devotion, and was always a great, positive aspiration. He taught me to stand tall when right and never give in! He will be truly missed.... RIP, Cuz, Much Love.....
