“ Terri remains one of my favorite students. I enjoyed watching her grow, get married, have a family, and keep her friendships going, especially with Nancy and Kathy. I recall the time when she first went to college. She was going to have to sell her horse, so I offered to keep him for her. I boarded the horse for that year and gave him back to her when she finished her freshman year. I felt honored to have that trust and thoroughly enjoyed her joy when she was able to have her horse back. Her love for her family was one of the things I so appreciated about her. Please accept my condolences and know that she was liked as-well-as loved by many. With deepest sympathy, Kathy Heide
