“ Aunt Yavonne, Just wanted to tell you how sorry I am to hear about Uncle Thirl's passing. I have missed you both over the many years we have been apart. You both were so very special to me as I was growing up. I have been in contact with your niece, Denise through Facebook and she told me about Uncle Thirl. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers at this time. Our God is able to wrap you in His arms and give comfort that no one else can. Please take comfort in His arms and love. Love and miss you so much, Lee Ann

“ I am very sorry for your loss. We were sent to Wyandotte together in 1972. We had a lot of good laughs there and back at St. Clair. Again, your family has my deepest sympathy.
