

Thomas Angel, Jr.

September 14, 1930 - April 22, 2016

LEXINGTON Age 85, formerly of Fraser and Atlanta, died Friday, April 22, 2016. He was born Sept. 14, 1930 in Lothair, KY, son of the late Thomas, Sr. and Anna Lee (Couch) Angel. He and Sonia M. Sleek were married on September 2, 1950 in Indianapolis. Tom was a Korean War veteran of the U.S. Air Force. He worked for the U.S. Government as an aircraft instructor and repairman for many years. He also taught ATV and motorcycle safety classes. He was a member of the Croswell American Legion Post #255 and the Atlanta (MI) Senior Center. Tom was an avid hunter and fisherman. Surviving are his wife Sonia; sons David (Kathi) of Fraser and Brian of Lexington; ten grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a son Steven. Services will be held at 2 P.M. Monday, April 26 at the Christian Memorial Cultural Center chapel, Rochester. Military rites will be provided by Croswell American Legion Post #255. Burial will follow at Christian Memorial. Visiting is from 1 to 2 P.M. Monday at the cemetery chapel. Arrangements are by the Pomeroy Funeral Home, Lexington.

Tribute Wall

JE

“ I believe im still in a little shock about the whole situation but i do believe he is now with my father an in a better place, and awaiting the day we can all be together again. So sorry about your loss grandma. Love Jennifer if you need to talk (586) 868-3725.

---

Jennifer - May 01, 2016 at 08:03 PM

CW

“ *Sonia,
Doris let me know early yesterday... I'm so sorry and wish I could be there to give you a big hug. Dad, mom and Tom are all talking about all your fishing adventures and the fun you had all those years they spent summers up that way. Love you! Hugs and kisses. I will try to call you.
Cousin, Chris*

---

Christine Wilhelm - April 23, 2016 at 04:58 PM

KA

“ Miss you dad.Love you

---

Kathi Angel - April 23, 2016 at 09:35 AM