“ In the 60's, I grew up next door to Ed's parents, Mac and Verna. Good people which became like another set of grandparents. I didn't know Ed very well, but did chat with him and family when they visited Marysville. From his photo, I can definitely see that he's a blend of both Mac and Verna's features. Good memories. I hope you, too, will be comforted by good memories of Ed.

“ Ed was a great great man. I will miss him always. I can only hope he knew how much he meant to me. I enjoyed him so much, even if he thought there were no mockingbirds in Florida. That will always be a great memory. Keep them straight up there Ed.
