

Virginia R, Ogilvie

August 22, 1913 - November 18, 2012

LEXINGTON: Virginia R. Ogilvie went home to be with her Lord and Savior and welcomed into the Kingdom by her entire family on November 18, 2012 at the age of 99. What a day of celebration it was. Virginia had been a resident of Regency-on-the-Lake for the past four years.

She was born August 22, 1913 in Croswell to Chester and Rosa (Rosenstiel) Surbrook. She married Edward Leimenstoll and they had three children; Marilyn Johnson (Duane), Margaret Flanigan (Ron) and Bruce Leimenstoll (Diane). Edward passed away in 1943. She later married Albert Ogilvie and they were blessed with a daughter, Colleen Graham-Varnick (Larry). Virginia was preceded in death by Albert, Marilyn, Margaret, Ron and Diane.

She is survived by her two children, Bruce Leimenstoll and Colleen Graham-Varnick. She is also survived by twelve grandchildren, twenty-five great grandchildren and six great-great-grandchildren. The legacy does live on. Virginia enjoyed gardening, antiquing, going to church and singing. Her most favorite thing was to “shop” and her Albert made sure she was always able to do that.

The family would like to thank Regency-on-the-Lake for their care of Virginia these last four years along with Great Lakes Hospice.

Visiting will be 7 – 9 PM Tuesday, Nov. 20, 2012 at Pomeroy Funeral Home, Lexington.

Graveside Committal will be 10:00 AM Wed. Nov. 21, 2012 at Lexington Cemetery.

Memorials suggested to Great Lakes Hospice.
