“ Wayne was a great uncle and I am glad to have had him in my and my families' lives.

"One More Angel In Heaven" from Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat seems to fit Wayne's story perfect:

*There's one more angel in heaven
There's one more star in the sky
[Wayne] we'll never forget you
It's tough but we're gonna get by
There's one less place a out table
There's one more tear in my eye
But [Wayne]the things that you stood for
Like truth and light never die
When I think of his last great battle
A lump comes to my throat*

*. . .
His body may be past its peak
But his soul's in paradise*

He came into our lives with a smile, a song, and about a million stories. That is how I will always remember him.

“ Wayne, the husband was a perfect man, Wayne the salesman could sale ice to Eskimos, Wayne the stories I heard from your family I will cherish forever, Wayne the Christian ,was so real. Wayne the joker of funny jokes always made us laugh! Loving you and Maryanne is easy and I will do my best to call her often! I promised! Know how much Wilmington friends will miss you and think of you often under the old oak trees at Masonboro, on Holy Land every time I pass by. Tell my two angel hello and miss them so much! Maryanne a awesome wife and friend ,how you made him so happy! You will always be my extended family. (Bless his Heart) Love ya, men it!

“ Marianne my thoughts and prayers are with you at this time . I included Wayne in my prayers during his ordeal hoping they would help both of you then and now . I knew him only from our engaging at reunion planning and parties and would love to have spent more time with him and yourself . I enjoyed being around him every time . So upbeat , carefree , great guy . He leaves a legacy of happiness and goodness that benefited all of us and will forever . Those are great credentials for his future . We would like to come to his memorial service when you choose to have it if you would invite us .

My best to you . Dick and Jan Widgren

“ Wayne had such a beautiful voice, a beautiful smile and such wonderful manners. He always made everyone feel at ease, he was fun to watch Tv with when sporting reverts were happening, he was just fun to be with. His love for life and his love for Marianne were incredible. He surely will be missed.
