“ I will never forget when Cindy started bringing you around. It became a weekend event to have you both out to the house. so many memories, all the rides from and too rec night. we started to love and fight like siblings..then onto planning your wedding, Standing up in your wedding is a day I will never forget. .. And then Michael being born, I am sure you two was wondering if I was EVER leaving... I was at your house more then my own. Then I grew up and moved away. I have always missed the closeness I once had with your family and Tim and Lavonne. The memories I hold dear to my heart, you taught me more then I would ever have let on.. RIP dear cousin. Until we meet again.. Love always Tammy
