“ My dear, sweet Uncle Billy always had a special place in his heart for me as I did for him. I think it was partly because I was born on his birthday. Every time my mother (his sister) would take us up to Gramma Schuman's home, he would hold me and rock me in the rocking chair. He knew that I needed love and affection and gave it freely to me as he has given his love so freely to others. The sweet and special spirit of this man will live on in all he came into contact with because as we love others we will continue to honor him in the love we give and share to everyone each day. May you all be wearing sunglasses when you celebrate his bright and beautiful light as he sits at the right hand of God as one of God's most cherished angels.
